A quote from The Amateur Footballer:

“Caulfield Grammarians have been forced to request that they be relieved of their last two matches, owing to a large number of enlistments. To the clubs who were to have opposed us, we express our regret, but the situation had become serious.

We are looking forward to a resumption of our games, and hope of renew acquaintances with the fine sportsman we have met in the past.

To our members who have enlisted, we extend our best wishes. Finally, a special word for Ken, the mainstay of the club.”
